

The King Has Arrived

1 - He's coming in the clouds, and every eye shall look upon His face.

There'll be those who'll run and hide, but death will be denied!

They'll remember what was said, "The King of Glory isn't dead!

He's coming for His bride, and the dead in Christ shall Rise!!"

Chorus

It is over, the pain and the suffering,

Losing our families, oh death! Where is your sting?

It is over, the grave has been denied!

It is over, the King has arrived!!

2 - In this final hour, nations have closed their ears

To the Word is preached, just like Noah's time, it is jeered!!

Oh, God's family holds on by faith to what's been proclaimed,

So when the trumpet sounds not one of us will be ashamed!

3- When the trumpet sounds, Jesus will be riding in the clouds.

In the twinkling of an eye, the dead in Christ will hear His shout!

Just like Lazarus, the tomb will empty when He gives the call,

And on that day, God will wipe away the tears from us all!
